Liszt – Faust Paraphrase; 6 Consolations; Rigoletto Paraphrase; Après une Lecture de Dante; Trancendental Etude No.8; Liebestraume No.3; Ballade No.2

These recordings were originally recorded for Denon and are now available on CD for the first time in nearly 20 years. Jean-Yves Thibaudet never recorded these particular works for any other label.

Jean-Yves Thibaudet is one of the world's foremost concert pianists. His solo recitals and appearances with today's leading orchestras, in addition to his 40 records as a Decca artist and recordings for Denon and others, never disappoint. Along with sensitive and dazzling interpretations of his native French music, and other extensive repertoire (including jazz), his stage presence sets him apart - invariably dressed in couture outfits by Vivian Westwood, with model good-looks - he possesses a youthful spirit and enthusiasm that is contagious.
